Overview:

This Summit on Sex Trafficking and Women and Child Abuse will be sponsored by Charleston Alumnae and Lambda Omicron Chapter - College of Charleston, of Delta Sigma Theta, Sorority, Incorporated and other sponsors/supporters. The event is scheduled for the Month of April during which we observe Child Abuse Prevention and Awareness.

Wednesday April 8, 2015 – Morning – Student Training

A student training hosted by Ms. Lisa Williams will provide a open dialogue regarding the issue of trafficking. Rachel, a graduate of Living Water Learning Resource Center, and a witness to the Safe Harbor legislations; which is now officially the Safe Harbor/Rachel's Law Act, will be on hand to answer some of the student's questions. The focus of this training, targeting High School students, is to create a greater awareness of the lure of the prevalent industries and circumstances related to Sex Trafficking, and also how to recognize the dangers.

Location: TBD

Time: TBD

Wednesday April 8, 2015 – Evening Events

An evening with Ms. Lisa Williams, to include a meet and greet reception, book signing to include a message on Human Sex Trafficking and the upcoming CNN documentary on Human Sex Trafficking in Atlanta.
